Javagal Srinath launches voter awareness campaign

Former cricketer Javagal Srinath, flanked by SP Seema Latkar and ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri, showing the index finger to symbolically encourage people to take part in voting at an awareness drive in city this morning. Picture right shows a young voter clicking a selfie during the campaign.

Mysuru, Apr. 6 (RK&BCT)- More than 2,500 persons, a majority being students from various colleges in city, had gathered in front of Mysore Palace this morning for an awareness drive to increase voting percentage in Mysuru urban areas.

The event was organised by the Mysuru District Administration, District Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) Committee, Mysuru City Corporation and the Zilla Panchayat. A festive atmosphere prevailed at the venue for over four hours with former international cricketer Javagal Srinath, who has been appointed as the 'Election Ambassador' (SVEEP Ambassador) of Mysuru District, being the star attraction. He has the responsibility of carrying out campaigns for a higher voting percentage with a target of more than 90 percent. During the last election, Mysuru urban recorded a low voting percentage and the district authorities are aiming to buck the trend this time. This was the first major voter awareness campaign under SVEEP held in Mysuru city.

Selfie points where the youths could click photos with the VIPs and performing folk troupes were the other attractions at the venue.

50 years of women's cricket in India

It will be a memorable Golden Jubilee: BCCI Chief Roger Binny

By B. Sreekantswamy

Mysuru, Apr. 6- Mention 1983 World Cup, avid cricket lovers will pat recall the names of the squad members at the drop of a hat. Roger Binny, the right-arm fast medium pace bowler who scalped the highest 18 wickets, is undeniably one among those names.

Now aged 67, Binny holds the reins of Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) as its 36th President. Before that, Binny had served as the President of Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA) from 1999 to 2022.

It was during his tenure, KSCA's long-pending plan to build a world-class international cricket stadium at Hanchya-Sathagalli in the outskirts of Mysuru, got a much-needed pace, with the State Government recently giving its consent directing Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) to allot the land. MUDA has also decided to allot 20 acres of land at Hanchya-Sathagalli 'B' Zone to build the stadium.

Binny still has the cricket left in him, as he hit a few balls in his usual all-rounder style, formally inaugurating All India Inter-University Cricket Tournament for Women 2022-23, at JSS-KSCA Grounds at Sri Jayachamarajendra College of Engineering (SJCE) campus in the city last evening.

For the budding women cricketers especially, it was the moment to draw some inspiration from the 'tall figure' of Indian cricket, and flocked him with uber enthusiasm to get his (Binny) autograph, never mind, it was on the 'blue cap', to treasure the moment for years to come. Amid this fan frenzy, Binny spared a few minutes for a 'short spell of interview' with Star of Mysore. Excerpts:

Star of Mysore (SOM): 2023 marks the 50th year (Golden Jubilee) of Women's Cricket in India (with the founding of Women's Cricket Association of India in 1973). Has BCCI got any plans to commemorate the occasion?

Roger Binny: We at BCCI have been mulling over celebrating 50 years of women's cricket in India. We also met some of those early women players in Mumbai, who were a part of the cricket then. Shubhangi Kulkarni, who currently represents the players side in BCCI, is also one among them. (Shubhangi made her international debut in India women's cricket team's first women's cricket series against West Indies women's cricket team in 1976).

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Tirthankar Mahavir was a social and spiritual reformer. He lived in an era when people performed plenty of rituals, sacrificed animals to seek favours from gods, believing in the presence of some supreme divine being, and in numerous superstitions. Exploitation of common people in the name of religion was rampant. Tirthankar Mahavir rose against these beliefs and practices, and gave some unique concepts regarding our soul, its true nature, journey, purpose, and its liberation.

There is no creator God, nor any creation. If there is creation, there is destruction. If there is a creator, then who has created the creator? This is the crucial question raised by Mahavir. To him, there is no concept of submission to any divine being for liberation. Complete self-purification by following the path of right knowledge, right faith and right conduct leads to liberation. Mahavir laid great emphasis on right conduct. He wanted us to conquer two weaknesses: attachment and aversion. Attachment leads to selfishness and greed, while aversion leads to hatred and anger. The highest standard of conduct meant the freedom from both and can be achieved only by self-efforts.

Existence is beginning less and infinite. Mahavir believed that there are no multiple gods to grant you favours or punishments: Your penance is instrumental in liberating you from your four passions like anger, ego, deceit and greed; and you are destined to become a super human being by yourself. Finally, liberation is a state where soul is free from all karmic bondage, both auspicious and inauspicious, and enjoys eternal bliss. The liberated soul reaches the eternal abode of bliss, the Siddha Sila, from where there is no rebirth. The unique concept of Jainism is that the soul's evolution takes place from ashubh to shubh; from shubh to shuddha, bad to good and then from good to pure. — Bipin Doshi, Jain Scholar and Physician in The Times of India

Premature twins born 126 days early

Ontario: The world's most premature twins, Adiah Laelynn and Adrial Luka Nadarajah, from Ontario, Canada, have been defying the odds ever since they came to this world. The twins were born after 152 days of pregnancy as opposed to 266 days. The twins hold the title of world's 'most premature twins' but also the 'lightest twins at birth'.

Their mother, Shakina Rajendram went into labour after just 21 weeks and 5 days- over four months early and she was told that the pregnancy was a loss and the doctors said that the babies had 0 per cent chance of survival.

Adiah and Adrial have broken the previous record of 125 set by Keeley and Kambry Ewoldt (USA, b. 24 November 2018). Weighing just 330 g (0.72 lb), baby girl Adiah was born 23 minutes before her brother, Adrial, who weighed 420 g (0.92 lb). At a combined 750 g (1.65 lb), they are the lightest twins at birth ever.

Runs ultra marathon for 23 consecutive days

Florida: A Florida woman earned a Guinness World Record when she completed 23 ultra-marathon runs -- 31.1 miles -- in a 23-day period.

Megan Cassidy, 41, of Kissimmee, earned the record for most consecutive days to run an ultra-marathon distance when she ran 31.1 miles a day from Dec. 17 until Jan. 8, Guinness World Records confirmed.

Cassidy said she completed her runs in the Lake Nona area due to the quality of the trails. She said one of the most difficult parts of her attempt was making sure to take in enough food.It was hard to eat enough calories in the first few days. Your brain tries to stop you from doing this so it tells you that you're not hungry. Cassidy beat the previous record of 22 days. She said she believes she could have gone beyond 23 days, but she had to stop her attempt to go back to work.

REALLY...?

- The Turkish village of Kuşköy practices a rare whistling language known as "bird language." Despite its name, this language isn't used to communicate with birds but rather to villagers scattered along Kuşköy's steep mountainous terrain. The messages can be as intricate as human language, and the high-pitched sounds are a genius way to communicate across long distances. This centuries-old custom has also landed itself on the UNESCO 2017 list of Intangible Cultural Heritage, so we may be lucky enough to hear the whistles bounce over the tree canopy in person someday.

Heritage Panel right in shooting down MCC's Fountain Circle plan

Sir,

This refers to the news item 'Heritage Panel shoots down MCC's Fountain Circle plan.' I am glad this unnecessary scheme to beautify an already beautiful piece of heritage is revoked. Yes, I call this heritage, because it has a history, a history that is to be preserved.

The name change is significant as it was renamed after Dr. Rajendra Prasad (the first President of India) Circle. It is sad we still call it Fountain Circle.

I wish in all official mention of this Circle it is called 'Dr. Rajendra Prasad Circle' and not Fountain Circle. The Rs. 1.2 crore can be spent on both maintenance of the structure and prevent it going the way of other heritage buildings.

The resource can be used to build a pump room and the fountains can be activated at least on Rajyotsava Day, Independence Day, Republic Day, during Dasara festivities and also when a Prime Minister, President, Vice-President or any foreign dignitaries visit this heritage and cultural city.

MCC bans poll-related flex banners, flags, buntings

Mysuru, Apr. 6 (BCT)- With the Assembly elections barely a month away, sitting and aspiring MLAs are all set to put up illegal flex boards and banners on almost all roads and footpaths in the city. Many times, these banners are so big that they endanger the lives of vehicle users and pedestrians.

As a pre-emptive measure, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has issued an order prohibiting display of hoardings, banners, buntings, flex, and wall writings on elections by political parties, ticket aspirants and other issues within its limits with immediate effect.

The order was issued yesterday by MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and has warned to prosecute firms and individuals who put up these flexes by invoking the Karnataka Open Places (Prevention of Disfigurement) Act, 1981 and the Section 135 of Karnataka Municipalities Act, 1976.

The law provides for up to six months' imprisonment or a fine of Rs. 1,000 on agencies or people who put up banners illegally. Under the provision of law, unauthorised installation of hoardings, banners, posters and other publicity materials related to the ensuing elections and other matters stands banned.

Election publicity materials cannot be pasted on the walls or compound walls in the MCC limits. Political parties must take valid permission from the MCC before putting up publicity materials at designated places identified by the MCC for the purpose. Other than these places, political parties are prohibited from using election publicity materials.

Permission is also mandatory for political party meetings and for putting up tents and sound systems at the meetings. The MCC Commissioner's order said that Government buildings and premises cannot be used for displaying publicity material of political parties.

"We will remove the publicity material on Government premises without discrimination. The MCC will not, however, intervene with regard to publicity material on private buildings as it was left to the owner of the private building and the political parties concerned. But it is mandatory for them to take valid permission to display on their premises," the order said.

In case of any violation, steps will be taken against persons responsible for putting up unauthorised flex banners, it stated.

Sumalatha meets PM Modi, invites him for son's wedding

New Delhi, Apr. 6 (Agencies)- Independent Member of Parliament from Mandya Sumalatha Ambarish met Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi yesterday and invited the PM for her son's wedding.

Sumalatha's son and actor Abhishek Ambarish also accompanied his mother.

Abhishek got engaged to Aviva Biddapa, an entrepreneur in December last year. The wedding is scheduled in June this year. Abhishek took to Instagram and posted a picture of him with PM Modi. It is said that Sumalatha gave the first wedding invitation card to the PM.

Sumalatha Ambarish tweeted, "I firmly believe that India and Karnataka need such promising leaders and leadership. My son Abhishek and I visited the PM to invite him for the wedding and was given an invitation and blessed." Sumalatha also said that they even discussed State politics during the meeting.

"On this occasion many issues about the State and my Mandya Constituency were discussed. The Honourable Prime Minister remembered the way he was received by my self-respecting people when he came to Mandya. My heartfelt thanks to him for his immense admiration for Mandya and Karnataka," she tweeted.

Sumalatha had recently extended her support to the BJP ahead of the Karnataka Assembly elections. It is being speculated that she might be asked to contest from one of the Constituencies from Mandya, but the BJP is yet to release its first list.

Two-time MLA, former Mandya MP L.R. Shivarame Gowda joins BJP

Bengaluru, Apr. 6 (Agencies)- Former Mandya MP L.R. Shivarame Gowda joined the BJP yesterday. He has represented Nagamangala Constituency in the State Assembly earlier.

He joined BJP in the presence of saffron party National General Secretary C.T. Ravi, State Unit Chief Nalin Kumar Kateel and Ministers Dr. K. Sudhakar and K. Gopalaiah at the party office in Bengaluru.

A two-time MLA, Shivarame Gowda, who has been with both the JD(S) and Congress earlier, said the workers were getting 'suffocated' in both the parties in Mandya district. Earlier, he was expelled from JD(S) for anti-party activities.

He won in 1989 and 1994 as an independent candidate and was elected to Lok Sabha from Mandya seat in the 2018 by-poll. Along with Shivarame Gowda, his son Chetan Gowda also joined the BJP. Chetan Gowda had contested unsuccessfully from Padmanabhanagar Assembly seat in Bengaluru on a Congress ticket.

State BJP President Nalin Kumar Kateel and National General Secretary C.T. Ravi handing over party flag to L.R. Shivarame Gowda.

It is said that Shivarame Gowda is the frontrunner for BJP ticket from Nagamangala in the ensuing Assembly polls. Nagamangala Assembly seat has been a stronghold of JD(S) and Congress and the seat has witnessed direct fight between the JD(S) and Congress nominees.

After joining BJP, Shivarame Gowda said that many people will join the BJP in the next few days as they want double-engine government in Karnataka.

"A lot of people are coming from JD(S). People of Karnataka are clever voters and the double-engine government will work better. BJP is a cadre-based party. Forget Siddharamaiah, D.K. Shivakumar, and H.D. Kumaraswamy. In the next election, the BJP will get a majority and it will form the government," Shivarame Gowda said.

When asked whether other political leaders will join the BJP, the former MP said, "In the next 10 days, a lot of people will come to join the BJP because they want double-engine government."

Novel steps to woo voters

97 Model Polling Stations coming up; Govt. School in V.V. Mohalla painted like Jaganmohan Palace

By M.T. Yogesh Kumar

Mysuru, Apr. 6- It's common during every general elections to hear a common refrain from a section of voters, who stay away from exercising their franchise only to avoid standing in the queue. To bring even those to the polling booths and increase the poll percentage, the District Administration has been setting up 97 Model Polling Stations this time.

With the elections to State Legislative Assembly slated for May 10, the District Administration has also resolved to increase the percentage of voting even in urban areas. The Polling Booths, which saw less voting percentage in the urban areas, have been identified for the purpose and are being refurbished to give it a new look only to attract the voters.

Like previous Assembly election, 55 Sakhi Booths, that includes five in each of 11 Assembly Constituencies, exclusively for women are being set up in the district. With this, the special preference will be given to women voters.

The specially-abled will also be given due preference by setting up dedicated 11 Polling Booths, one in each of the 11 Constituencies in the district. They will also be exempted from waiting for their turn in the queue outside the other polling booths.

Similarly, 11 Polling Booths will wear a youthful look only to attract young voters, and the preference will be given to new and young voters.

The Government Girls High School in V.V. Mohalla, coming under Chamaraja Assembly Constituency, which has Polling Booths 113, 114 and 115, has been given a fresh coat of paint to make it look attractive.

Theme based Polling Booths are also coming up under the new concept. Barring Varuna Assembly Constituency, 10 such booths will be set up in remaining Constituencies. Each booths will be having different designs, with special pictures to attract the voters again. Ethnic Booth is yet another initiative and 10 such traditional booths will be built, one in each of Periyapatna, K. R. Nagar, Nanjangud and Chamundeshwari, three in each of Hunsur and H.D. Kote Constituencies. Those on election duty will be dressed in traditional attire and the booths will be decorated with coconut fronds and leaves. The booths at tribal areas will also have a distinct look to depict tribal customs and traditions.

The Government Girls High School, V.V. Mohalla, falling under Chamaraja Constituency that had reached its dilapidated stage, has been given a royal look. The building has been painted with a mixture of sky blue, green and cream colours, making it look like Jaganmohan Palace. The school has Polling Booths 113, 114 and 115. The premises has been spruced up by clearing weeds and shrubs. Undoubtedly, this Polling Station will attract the voters, said Ranjit Kumar, SVEEP Nodal Officer, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC).

Six other Polling Stations in various Constituencies in the district wear unique look, especially at Krishnaraja, Chamaraja and Narasimharaja Assembly Constituencies that witnessed less than 60 percent voting in the previous elections held in 2018. Chamaraja Constituency recorded 59.18 percent voting during the 2018 election. Besides, 20 percent of the booths have recorded 40 percent to 55 percent voting and Mysuru District Administration is pulling all stops to improve the voting percentage.

Selfie point at Hardinge Circle to create voting awareness

Mysuru, Apr. 6 (MTY&BCT)- To encourage voters, especially youth, to cast their votes during the upcoming Assembly polls, the District Administration and Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) Committee has set up a selfie points at various places including the Hardinge Circle.

Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra said the initiative is aimed at sensitising the voters for participation in the democratic process. He said that this endeavour under SVEEP was aimed at enhancing the participation of youth in the elections.

He said the selfie craze was prevalent among the youth and hoped this effort would be instrumental in motivating the young voters to exercise their franchise enthusiastically in the ensuing Assembly elections.

He said that this selfie point would not only provide a new place to the people for getting their picture clicked but also disseminate the message of voting to them. He said this point has been purposely set up at Hardinge Circle where the density of the population is high so that people coming here could use it aptly for clicking their pictures.

A visit to St. Bartholomew's Church Cemetery: Remembering van Ingens of Mysuru

Edwin Joubert van Ingen St. Bartholomew's Church Cemetery where the graves of Edwin Joubert and his brothers John Dewet van Ingen and Henry Botha van Ingen are located.

I was surprised to read a detailed article on the world famous taxidermist Edwin Joubert van Ingen of Mysuru, who passed away in the year 2013 at the age of 101. Unsung and unwept.

It was very sad to learn that at his burial at St. Bartholomew's Church Cemetery, next to St. Philomena's High School, there were hardly 20 people of which half were helpers to lower his coffin into the grave.

I knew Edwin Joubert van Ingen in his last days and even had dinner in his house located opposite to Karnataka Police Academy with my late friend Aroop Banerjee, a marketing executive. Of course, I had visited him earlier a couple of times in the 80s when he took me around his world of stuffed animals, from lions, bisons, elephants to antlers, bears, wild boars, cats etc.

A soft spoken, humble bachelor, he had deep knowledge on the subject of taxidermy. Indeed he was at the height of his popularity and fame, a rich man with huge properties and well connected with the rich, famous and powerful — Maharajas and Presidents of different countries all over the world.

When I finished reading the article, the first thing I did was to go to St. Bartholomew's Church Cemetery from my Office in Bannimantap and see his tomb. I was deeply touched at the total neglect of the tomb which is simply a black tablet buried in earth. Thank God, the keeper of the Cemetery Antony Das was kind enough to guide me to the tomb. Edwin Joubert was buried alongside the tombs of his two brothers namely John Dewet van Ingen (1902-1993) and Henry Botha van Ingen (1903-1996).

Edwin Joubert van Ingen, such a rich and famous man with so much of real estate properties like land, building and coffee plantations coupled with huge number of invaluable stuffed wildlife animals, did not leave behind in proper time a WILL bequeathing the properties to whomsoever he loved or to whomsoever served him in his old age or even to some charity.

As I stood there in silence reflecting on man's fate at the end of his life, I realised death is the greatest leveller of man, who while alive, has built around himself many levels of wealth, position and power, all of which will finally lead only to his grave. Thomas Gray, the English Poet could not have explained this existential truth in his poem 'Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard,' more eloquently. He wrote:

The boast of heraldry, the pomp of power,
And all that beauty, all that wealth, e'er gave,
Await alike th' inevitable hour.
The paths of glory lead but to the grave...

When I returned to my Office, I sat down reflecting on a man's journey in his life, his destination and destiny. Same thoughts crossed my mind when I visited old age homes where I find men and women, desolate in many cases and in despair, many wishing for an early end. Some for reasons of decrepit health, burdened with pain and helplessness, some for reasons of loneliness and being deserted at their old age when they need most care and attention by their own dear and near ones, children. To bring them up they had sacrificed much in their days of family life. For some children, caring for their pets (dogs) in the US is a more compelling reason to rush back leaving behind the parents to their fate. These are human conditions which cannot be reasoned for justification. Let it be.

Along with these thoughts, I recalled my visit to Paris, France, in the year 2017. My son, who had already visited Paris before and explored important tourist centres and places of special interest for an Indian in Paris, had visited the famous Pere Lachaise Cemetery in Paris. After explaining to me the significance of that Cemetery, he asked me if I could take the trouble of travelling to the outskirts of Paris to visit the Cemetery. I jumped at the opportunity because that was where JRD Tata was buried. JRD Tata had died in Geneva, Switzerland, on November 29, 1993 at the age of 89 due to kidney infection.

The grave of TATA family members interred in Pere Lachaise Cemetery, Paris. JRD Tata's tombstone is seen in the extreme right.

India has had a number of French connections but the one it has had through JRD Tata is epoch-making. Another French man with India connection who comes to mind is that great French savant and intellectual Romain Rolland. It was he who introduced the two famous Indian Hindu spiritual persons to the world. Those two are Ramakrishna Paramahamsa and Swami Vivekananda. But for Romain Rolland, a Nobel Laureate, writing a book on each of these spiritual leaders, they would, probably, have remained known to only India and Vivekananda to America also.

There was also another French connection to India. It was through Tipu Sultan the ruler of Mysore, who tried to befriend French to fight the British without much success in 1796. However, India owes much to France because it gave India JRD Tata, an extraordinary person — an aviator, a visionary entrepreneur, Chairman of Tata Group of industries and business and a shareholder of Tata Sons, the flagship company of Tatas.

A grateful nation, India, honoured him with two highest civilian awards — Padma Vibhushan (1957) and the ultimate honour Bharat Ratna (1992). He was also awarded the French Legion of Honour by the French Government in 1983. And as destiny would have it, he was buried in a city, Paris, where he was born. And I wanted to visit his grave.

It is nothing but his destiny that JRD Tata, born in Paris, could get his burial done in the famous Paris Cemetery. Not just that, his other Tata family members too were buried there (see picture).

Be that as it may, reverting to Edwin Joubert van Ingen, it is said that such a rich and famous man with so much of real estate properties like land, building and coffee plantations coupled with huge number of invaluable stuffed wildlife animals, did not leave behind in proper time a WILL bequeathing the properties to whomsoever he loved or to whomsoever served him in his old age or even to some charity. One deserving charitable institution was just a stone's throw away from his house — The Old Age Home of the Little Sisters of the Poor. As a result, all his properties are said to be embroiled in both civil and criminal cases.

Such a great man of the world of taxidermy, who had enriched the landscape of arts and crafts in the field of stuffed animals, today has been forgotten in Mysuru, his karma bhoomi. It would be befitting if the Mysuru City Corporation or the authorities concerned, who have power to recognise the services of Edwin Joubert van Ingen, to honour his memory in a suitable way — naming a Road or a Circle, installing a bust in Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens, popularly known as Mysuru Zoo or at Regional Museum of Natural History in Siddarthanagar or any such other befitting manner. It is important to know that in his later years, he gave up hunting completely and turned into a wildlife conservationist.

Varuna hogs limelight with Siddharamaiah's re-entry

By S.B. Devaraj

Mysuru, Apr. 5- Varuna Constituency is expected to be one of the most closely watched Constituencies this election season, with the return of Opposition Leader and former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah to his home turf.

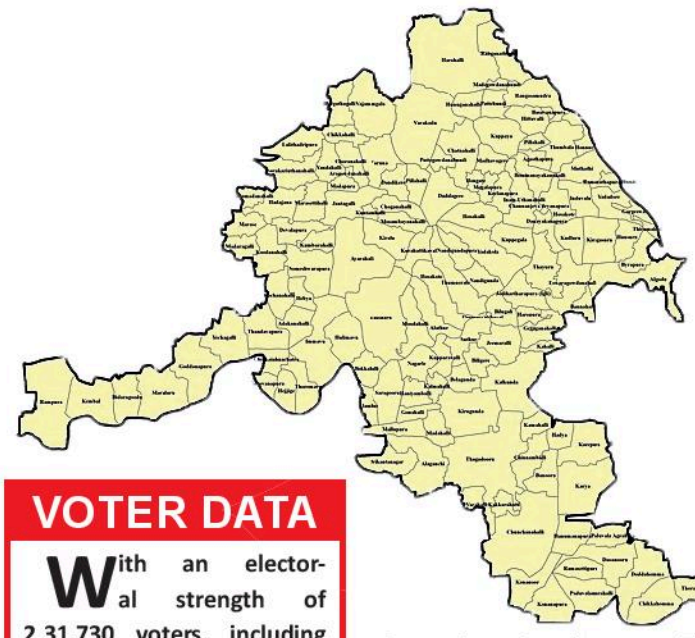
The Congress party has announced Siddharamaiah's candidature from this Constituency, which includes his native place Siddaramanahundi.

This Constituency has the distinction of giving a Chief Minister to the State — Siddharamaiah was elected from here for the second consecutive time in 2013, and his party went on to form the Government with an absolute majority.

The Varuna Constituency was created in 2008 following the recommendations of the Delimitation Commission headed by Justice Kuldip Singh. It covers parts of Mysuru, Nanjangud, and T. Narasipur taluks.

In the previous election in 2018, there were speculations that B.Y. Vijayendra, the son of former Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, would contest from this Constituency. Vijayendra had even rented a house in Varuna and conducted a 22-day poll campaign.

However, at the last minute, the BJP High Command decided to field a lesser-known candidate, Thotadappa Basavaraju,



VOTER DATA

With an electoral strength of 2,31,730 voters, including 1,15,811 males, 1,15,907 females, and 12 other category voters, the Constituency saw an increase of 10,000 voters compared to the previous election. It has 261 polling booths, and in the last Assembly election, the Constituency recorded a voter turnout of 78.92 percent. Of the total 2,21,050 voters, 1,74,457 had exercised their franchise.

from the Constituency. The reasons behind this decision are only known best to the BJP High Command.

Siddharamaiah contested as the first Congress candidate in the 2008 Assembly polls, soon after his famous victory in the high-stakes Chamundeshwari by-polls held in 2006. He had quit the JD(S) at the time, unhappy with the party's leadership.

In the 2008 election, Siddharamaiah defeated retired top Police officer L. Revanasiddhaiah of the BJP. He went on to win a high-voltage contest in the subsequent election in 2013, defeating Ka.Pu. Siddalingaswamy, a close associate of former CM B.S. Yediyurappa.

After two terms, Siddharamaiah decided to contest from Chamundeshwari, a Constituency he had represented several times since 1983, and from Badami in Bagalkot district as his second seat in the 2018 polls. He left the Varuna Assembly segment for his son, Dr. Yathindra.

Despite losing to JD(S) candidate G.T. Devegowda in Chamundeshwari, Siddharamaiah managed to win in Badami and became the Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly after the collapse of the JD(S)-Congress Coalition Government in 2019.

Siddharamaiah is now once again entering the electoral battlefield from Varuna, which is currently represented by his son, Dr. Yathindra. It remains to be seen if the Kuruba leader's luck will hold, as he has often hinted at becoming the CM again if the Congress is voted to power. Siddharamaiah has repeatedly stated that this will be his last election.

Siddharamaiah is also eyeing Kolar as his second Assembly segment this time, while leaving Badami, which he currently represents. He has previously represented Chamundeshwari, Varuna and Badami and hopes to secure his third win from Varuna and a victory in Kolar, provided the Congress High Command allows him to contest there.

The Congress has announced Siddharamaiah's candidature from Varuna in the first list of its 124 candidates, while the JD(S) has named Abhishek Manegar, who had also contested in the previous election.

The BJP is yet to announce its candidate for the seat, with several aspirants vying for the ticket, including Ka.Pu. Siddalingaswamy, Mangala Somashekar, Thotadappa Basavaraju, Sharath Puttabuddhi, Devanur Pratap and Zoo Authority of Karnataka's former Chairman L.R. Mahadevaswamy▪

A signature wall was kept at the venue where participants and VIPs could sign and as part of the campaign, the young voters were administered an oath for them to vote without fail and also encourage their friends to exercise their franchise.

Addressing the gathering, Javagal Srinath said that the essence of democracy lies in elections where people elect their representatives or law-makers. "Election is expressing your wish. It is your mandate for a better future. It is our right and responsibility to vote," he said.

Voter turnout to 90 percent

Deputy Commissioner and District Electoral Officer Dr. K.V. Rajendra said that district administration has targeted to improve voter turnout to 90 percent and has proposed to make Mysuru a top district in Karnataka in terms of polling percentage.

"We have launched various initiatives to increase voter awareness and one of them is roping in Javagal Srinath as the ambassador for its voter awareness campaigns. Booths that voted less have been identified and special focus will be given for improving turnout. Initiatives like street plays, celebrity talks, discussions and debates besides banners and hoardings on voter awareness have been planned and launched," he added.

Continuing, the DC said that the Election Commission has released c-Vigil Online Mobile App, which enables the public to report any electoral malpractices or violations of Model Code of Conduct. The identity of the sender will be kept confidential, the DC added.

ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri, SP Seema Latkar, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy, DCP (Law and Order) M. Muthuraj, Commissioner of Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage Devaraju and others were present.

A large number of students who recently enrolled their names in the electoral rolls had also gathered at the venue.

BCCI Chief Roger Binny

Star of Mysore (SOM): But are there any specific plans to make the Golden Jubilee year of women's cricket memorable?

Roger Binny: It is a milestone moment indeed and we are planning something. With the World Cup also scheduled from Oct. 5 to Nov. 19, 2023, we will plan the celebrations.

SOM: Soon after taking over as BCCI President in October 2022, you announced pay parity bringing the match fees for women cricketers on par with men. But women cricketers will be largely benefited only if they play more?

Roger Binny: That's what we are also looking at and the recently hosted Women's Premier League (WPL) is one such initiative. In the future, you will get to see more matches and tournaments exclusively for women cricketers.

SOM correspondent interviewing BCCI President Roger Binny.

SOM: Like foreign countries, has the BCCI got plans to set up an exclusive museum to trace the evolution of women's cricket in India?

Roger Binny: Several State Cricket Associations already have museums, like Karnataka State Cricket Association, Gujarat Cricket Association (Narendra Modi Stadium at Motera, Ahmedabad in Gujarat) and Punjab Cricket Association. The women's cricket is also a part of these museums.

Ramothsava Sangeethotsava: Day 5

Rare compositions mark the brothers' concert

Malladi Brothers — Vid. Malladi Sreeramprasad and Vid. Malladi Ravikumar — presenting a vocal duet at 'Sangeethotsava - 2023,' a series of concerts organised as part of 133rd anniversary of Sri Ramothsava celebrations by Sri Ramabhyudaya Sabha Public Charitable Trust at Alamma's Choultry in Srirampet on Apr. 3. They are accompanied by Vid. Embar Kannan on violin, Vid. B.C. Manjunath on mridanga and Vid. Giridhar Udupa on ghata.

By Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan

On the 5th day of Ramothsava Sangeethotsava at Alamma's Choultry on Apr. 3, Malladi Brothers — Vid. Malladi Sreeramprasad and Vid. Malladi Ravikumar — gave a vocal concert with Vid. Embar Kannan on violin, Vid. B.C. Manjunath on mridanga and Vid. Giridhar Udupa on ghata.

The brothers are known to possess a large repertoire of compositions and they try to popularise rare ragas and compositions to increase interest in the connoisseurs. This day too, their list of compositions comprised of rare compositions. 'Purushottamuda Neevu', a composition on Sri Rama tuned by their guru in Revagupti set to Khanda Chapu was very appealing and suited the occasion. Dhanyasi brought another rare composition 'Nicchitamu nirmalamu' by Tyagaraja brimmed with emotional poignancy and lyrical allure.

'Ramachandram Bhavayami' by Deekshitar came next with a short ragalapana by Ravikumar. 'Manamuleda' by Tyagaraja found swaras at 'Ganaruchi deliyu', unlike the usual swaras for the beginning of the pallavi. 'Sujana jeevana Rama Suguna bhushana Rama' in Kamas by Tyagaraja, was a short but meaningful filler.

The toast of the evening Saveri presented as the main raga for more than 20 minutes, had everything in it. The brothers went full throat here but without being harsh. They used akaras, gamakas and janti prayogas and longish rests on jeeva swaras, making it a soul-satisfying experience. Embar Kannan's playing was another highlight of the evening. His strong grooming let him unleash a variety of bowing and fingering techniques. Tyagaraja's 'Ramabana' also saw a surprising neraval and detailed swaras for the pallavi after which Vid. Manjunath and Vid. Giridhar combined well to present a Taniyavartanam that was replete with breath-taking styles.

In the post-tani part, the brothers took up a RTP in Kapi. Ravi's rendition of Kapi was highly enjoyable with all the expected sangatis in it. Kannan proved his mettle too. Before starting the pallavi which had the lyrics 'Dasharathi Karuna payonidhi Srirama Pahi Bhadragiri' set to Trishra Triputa Tala in Khanda Nadai, the brothers prayed that Bhadragiri Rama should smile on Bombay Jayashree who is in severe illness and help her to come out of her illness successfully.

The technique of weaving swaras for the pallavi in the Ghana raga pancharatna ragas - Nata, Gowla, Arabhi, Varali and Sri by the brothers alternately was yet another welcome surprise. Towards the end of the concert, the brothers were presented with a beautiful Rama frame by a donor, seeing which they were inspired to sing 'Nannu palimpa nadachi vacchitivo'.

Sreeramprasad and Ravikumar concluded their 3-hour concert with 'Rama Mantrava Japiso' by Tyagaraja and 'Ramachandraya janaka' mangalam.

Dr. Vidyabhushana sings at Bidaram Krishnappa's Seetharama Mandira

Vid. Dr. Vidyabhushana presenting a Karnatak classical vocal concert at Ganavisharadha Shri Bidaram Krishnappa's Sri Prasanna Seetharama Mandira in Devaraja Mohalla yesterday as part of the ongoing 107th Ramanavami Annual Heritage Music Festival. He is accompanied by Vid. Sumanth Manjunath on violin, Vid. H.L. Shivashankaraswamy on mridanga, Vid. Raghunandan Rao on ghata and Vid. M. Nagaraj on tabla.

'WPL to take women's cricket a notch above'

Mysuru, Apr. 6 (BS)- Roger Binny, President of Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI), has said: "Women's Premier League (WPL) has set the wheel in motion for taking women's cricket to a different level, with budding players sure to get their due."

He was addressing the gathering during the formal inauguration of All India Inter-University Cricket Tournament for Women 2022-23 (that began on Apr. 5 and played till Apr. 11), organised by JSS Science and Technology University (JSS STU) in association with Association of Indian Universities (AIU), at JSS-KSCA Ground, SJCE campus in city, last evening.

Binny, as he is known among the cricketers, said: "After I took over as BCCI President, women's cricket has been the focal point of discussion. WPL (the first season held in March 2023) has a great future. I was very surprised to see the women players showing their prowess in the game on the field, that naturally gives a feeling that the women's cricket has taken off to a different level. The girls have a good opportunity to set the goal to hone their cricketing skills."

"When men's IPL started in the year 2008, it helped a lot of Indian players to study the style of game of foreign players, by mixing with them. The women players also have got a similar opportunity to study the work culture of foreign players and the way they play and think about the game," added Binny.

Asserting that WPL will also be a great success like men's IPL, Binny called on the budding cricketers taking part in the tournament to explore the good opportunities and play for the country to make their parents feel proud of them.

Binny, who announced that Mysuru city holds a special place in his heart and is also fond of the place, went down the memory lane to recall his younger days, when he was an athlete first, before becoming a cricketer.

"As an athlete I had taken part in javelin throw and shot-put during Dasara Sports in city. Besides watching Karnataka team play cricket on the other side," said Binny to the applause of the gathering.

Binny also disclosed that he is going to be a Mysurean shortly as he has brought a property in the city.

'Rajeshwari Gayakwad - an alumnus of JSS'

Dr. A.N. Santosh Kumar, Vice-Chancellor of JSS STU, recalled the achievements of Roger Binny as a squad member of Indian cricket team that lifted its maiden World Cup in 1983.

Dr. Santosh Kumar also made a mention of Rajeshwari S. Gayakwad, the Indian woman cricketer, who is an alumnus of JSS Free School, a residential facility run by JSS Mahavidyapeetha at Suttur Sri Kshetra in Nanjangud.

Pencil sketch

A pencil portrait sketch of Binny by Dr. C. Revanna, Director of Department of Physical Education, Sri Jayachamarajendra College of Engineering (SJCE), was also gifted to Binny on the occasion.

S.P. Manjunath, Secretary-1 of JSS Mahavidyapeetha and Dr. S.A. Dhanaraj, Registrar of JSS-STU, were also present.

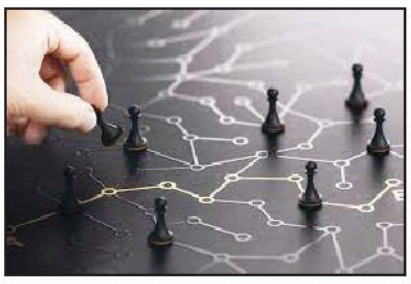
WORD OF THE DAY

Démarche



Pronunciation: day-MARSH.
Meaning: The word démarche refers to a course of action or a manoeuvre, and especially to a political or diplomatic manoeuvre. Démarche is also often used specifically for a petition or protest that is presented through diplomatic channels.
Origin: When it comes to international diplomacy, it's important not only to talk the talk but to walk the walk—which makes démarche an especially fitting word for diplomatic contexts. The word comes from French, where it can mean "gait" or "walk," among other things. In English it was first used in the 17th century generally in the sense of "a manoeuvre," and it soon developed a specific use in the world of diplomacy. Some of the other diplomacy-related words we use that come from French include attaché, chargé d'affaires, communiqué, détente, and agrément—not to mention the words diplomacy and diplomat themselves.
Example: "... the two top American diplomats, Antony J. Blinken, the secretary of state & Wendy Sherman, deputy secretary, issued a formal démarche to a senior Chinese diplomat, Zhu Haiquan, at State Department around 6.30 pm on Feb. 1 over the balloon, telling him his govt. had to do something about it." — Edward Wong, Julian E. Barnes & Adam Entous

THE ODD WORD

Dearticulate

To disjoint.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Dead loss

Meaning: The phrase 'Dead loss' is used to describe a total loss.
Origin: The origin of the idiom 'Dead loss' is believed to have its roots in the 1700s, though no one really knows who used the term first. The word 'dead' originated in Old English, and was first used as an adjective in the 14th century. The word 'loss' originated in Old English as the word 'los', and was first used in the 14th century as well.
Example: "This car is a dead loss after the accident."
